

JACKSON COUNTY DISTRICT COURT CASES ACCESSIBLE ONLINE

District Clerk Sharon Mathis joins iDocket.com and other counties for display of public court case information

Edna, Texas – December 7th, 2020 – District Clerk, Sharon Mathis, announced today the inclusion of court case information from the District Courts of Jackson County in an Internet-based website at www.idocket.com. The District Clerk joins a growing consortium of counties to display court information on the Internet.

Currently, 87 counties and 137 County and District Clerks across the State of Texas participate in iDocket.com's online database including Cherokee County, Nacogdoches County, Shelby County, and Houston County to name just a few. iDocket.com is adding other counties to its database on a regular basis.

District Clerk Sharon Mathis states she is excited to offer this new service to the attorneys who practice in the District Courts of Jackson County and any other individuals and entities that require information and can use easy access to this information. This also includes bail bondsmen and of course the general public. Sharon states, "Court information will be easily available and accessed 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. By making this service available, customer service will increase and personal traffic and telephone requests are being reduced saving taxpayer dollars while still protecting personal information."
