

DEAF SMITH COUNTY COURT CASES ACCESSIBLE ONLINE

County Clerk Rachel Garman joins iDocket.com and other counties for display of public court case information

Hereford, Texas – May 18th, 2020 – County Clerk, Rachel Garman, announced today the inclusion of court case information from the County Courts of Deaf Smith County in an Internet-based website at www.idocket.com. The County Clerk joins a growing consortium of counties to display court information on the Internet.

Currently, 85 counties and 135 County and District Clerks across the State of Texas participate in iDocket.com's online database including Oldham County, Swisher County, Hartley County, and Swisher County to name just a few. iDocket.com is adding other counties to its database on a regular basis.

County Clerk Rachel Garman states she is excited to offer this new service to the attorneys who practice in the County Courts of Deaf Smith County and any other individuals and entities that require information and can use easy access to this information. This also includes bail bondsmen and of course the general public. Rachel states, "Court information will be easily available and accessed 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. By making this service available, customer service will increase and personal traffic and telephone requests are being reduced saving taxpayer dollars while still protecting personal information."
