

HARTLEY COUNTY & DISTRICT COURT CASES ACCESSIBLE ONLINE

County & District Clerk Melissa Mead joins iDocket.com and other counties for display of public court case information

Channing, Texas – January 2nd, 2020 – County & District Clerk, Melissa Mead, announced today the inclusion of court case information from the County & District Courts of Hartley County in an Internet-based website at www.idocket.com. The County & District Clerk joins a growing consortium of counties to display court information on the Internet.

Currently, 78 counties and 126 County and District Clerks across the State of Texas participate in iDocket.com's online database including. iDocket.com is adding other counties to its database on a regular basis.

County & District Clerk Melissa Mead states she is excited to offer this new service to the attorneys who practice in the County and District Courts of Hartley County and any other individuals and entities that require information and can use easy access to this information. This also includes bail bondsmen and of course the general public. Melissa states, "Court information will be easily available and accessed 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. By making this service available, customer service will increase and personal traffic and telephone requests are being reduced saving taxpayer dollars while still protecting personal information."
